

Welcome to seventh grade! Middle school is a time of change and challenge. Our academic focus is to prepare the students for high school. You will have more responsibility and choices but will also have to accept the consequences of those choices. Our best advice is: try your best; take pride in everything you do; always keep in mind your responsibility as a Christian and a child of God. Most importantly, have fun and celebrate your learning.